

Evolution of Just in Time Manufacturing Practices at Hydro Engineering, Inc.

Since early 2002, Hydro Engineering, Inc. has embarked on a comprehensive journey toward Just in Time Manufacturing principles, aimed at optimizing every facet of our operations. We scrutinize and refine all aspects of our business, from marketing and product development to post-sales services, with a singular focus: delivering maximum value to our customers.

At Hydro Engineering, Inc., continuous improvement is not just a goal; it's our standard operating procedure. Our ISO2009:2015 Management Plan requires each department to undergo regular evaluations and enhancements, seamlessly incorporating changes as part of our ongoing process.

While the transformations within Hydro Engineering and its products may not always be apparent, they are purposeful and impactful. What does this mean for you?

- Information dissemination to our customers is now more precise and comprehensive, encompassing accurate pricing, specifications, manuals, and support documentation.
- Every machine is built to order, ensuring customers receive precisely what they want.
- This agile production method enables swift adjustments and problem-solving, resulting in significantly enhanced product quality.
- Our commitment to Just In Time Manufacturing practices has enabled us to keep sales prices competitive by eliminating unnecessary inventory costs, streamlining procurement, and refining testing procedures.
- Rigorous documentation throughout the entire process, from order to warranty, ensures customer-centric handling at every stage.
- We've optimized our supply chain, enabling more frequent and timely deliveries, further driving down costs for our customers.
